ALLEN'S RESOLUTION DEBATED

Sherman Expresses His Regret at Its Introduction.

Mills States His Position on the Tariff Bill In Reply to a Taunt from Hale and Aldrich—He Will Vote Against the Amendments, But Not Against the Measure When Complete.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Early in the session of the Senate to-day the resolution offered last Monday by Allen (Pop., Neb.) for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the police assault upon and arrest of Coxey, Brown and Jones in the Capitol grounds on the 1st day of May, was laid before the Senate and Allen made an argument in support of it.

He had expected, he said, that the senior Senator from Ohio (Sherman) would have introduced a resolution locking to the investigation of that outrage. But, as the Senator from Ohio had taken no such step, he (Allen) had been moved to do so. He had deemed it his duty, although it was not a pleasure by any means to offer a resolution for the purpose of having a thorough and complete investigation of the remarkable scene.

Coxey had come to Washington, as was stated by the press (if that was to be relied upon), for the purpose of exercising his constitutional right of petitioning the Senate for the redress of what he considered a grievance of himself and many millions of people in common with him. He (Allen) had taken various occasions to say that, with the purpose of the Coxey movement he had not, and never had had, the slightest sympathy.

Allen went on to read the address which Coxey had tried to read from the Capitol steps, and which he had been prevented from doing by the police, who "laid violent hands upon him and drove him from the Capitol grounds."

"Are you not the counsel of Mr.
Coxey?" Daniel (Dem., Va.) asked.

"No, sir," Allen answered.

"Has not," Daniel further asked, "Coxey full legal remedies for any wrong which he may have suffered?"

"I hope," Allen said, "that the Senator from Virginia will not undertake to divert me from the course I have marked out."

"I have no desire to divert the Senator," Daniel said; "but I want to judge as to the propriety of the Senate acting in this case, if the man has been injured and if he has legal remedy for the injury."

Allen went on to say that it was not true that he was or ever had been counsel for Coxey. He had been called in consultation with two Representatives (Hudson, of Kansas, and Pence, of Colorado,) as to Coxey's right, and he had gone to the police court in connection with the matter.

Sherman expressed his great regret that while an important bill was pressing this resolution should be brought before the Senate and occupy its time.

The whole thing he asserted was a mere sham and pretense, without a shadow of foundation. Nobody, Sherman said, had ever denied the right of petition.
Coxey knew that any member of the Senate or House would present his petition and the petition of the men who were with him.

A leading citizen of Ohio had called upon him (Sherman) and asked him if he would present Coxey's petition, and he had promptly answered yes if couched in proper language. He had also offered to introduce any of Coxey's bills, although he did not believe in one word of them.

At this stage of the discussion the morning hour having expired, the resolution went over without action till tomorrow, Senator Teller and others signifying a desire to be heard upon it.

The tariff bill was then at 1:10 taken up and a long, uninteresting discussion took place on the pending amendment, to insert in the enacting clause of the bill the words "Or withdrawn for consumption," so that it will read that the duties provided in the act will be levied, collected and paid upon all articles imported from foreign countries or withdrawn for consumption after the 30th of June, 1894.

The amendment was attacked on the Republican side of the chamber as making a gift of between three and four million dollars to the owners of imported goods now in warehouses and was defended on the Democratic side as being just and equitable and in accordance with existing laws.

Hale and Aldrich commented upon the fact that members of the finance committee on either side disagreed with each other as to the amendment, and taunted the Democrats with infidelity to their platform, which had declared protection in the United States to be unconstitutional and to be a fraud.

The taunt had an immediate effect upon Mills, who took the floor as soon as Aldrich had finished his remarks and in a passionate and excited manner referred to his speech several weeks ago in which he declared himself to be (as between the McKinley act and the Wilson bill) "between the devil and the deep sea," and said:

"A change has come over the spirit of the situation, not over my spirit. I have not got as much sea room as on that occasion. I find that the bill pending before us is not the Wilson bill, but a bill which ought, perhaps, to bear the honored name of the Senator from Maryland (Gorman) or of the Senator from Ohio (Brice). No man can torment me into the admission that the bill pending before this body is in any respect an answer to pledges made by the Democratic national convention to the Democratic people of the United States.
I have said and I expect to say as long as I keep my understanding, that taxation levied on value is the only honest system of taxation and that the specific system of taxation is imposed for the purpose of concealing facts and defrauding the Government for the benefit of favored classes.

"I stand there to-day and shall stand there as long as I live. I rise to say that I do not intend to vote for a single one of these amendments changing the duties from ad valorem to specific. I am humiliated enough to have to be drawn nearer and nearer to the McKinley act, in the path of duty, and in the amount of robbery inflicted upon the poor working people of the country, who have been starved to death under this system of taxation, without being compelled to bow down in humiliation and to take up even the badges of protec-

"The very first change is made from an ad valorem to a specific system, and that runs along through the whole bill.
We have had to surrender at discretion at every point, until it is now a question between the McKinley protection act and the pending bill, with very little margin of difference between the two.
I repeat what I said before, that I will vote against the amendments; but when they are incorporated in the bill I will vote for the bill if it has five cents of reduction in it, as a choice between the two."

The pending amendment was then agreed to without any further discussion and without a division. Then Lodge offered the amendment of which he had previously given notice. Half a dozen Senators spoke upon this amendment.

Harris had several times moved to lay it upon the table, but had withdrawn his motion to permit other Senators to speak. Finally Harris refused to again withdraw his motion and a vote was taken resulting: Yeas, 33; nays, 20.

So Senator Lodge's amendment was laid on the table and the tariff bill then went over till to-morrow. A substitute for the Coxey resolution was offered by Teller and accepted by Allen and went over till to-morrow.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of executive business and at 6 p. m. adjourned until to-morrow at 11 a. m.

THE DAY IN THE HOUSE.

Bill for the Suspension of the 10 Per Cent.
Tax on Clearing House Certificates Considered.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—After the transaction of some business of a minor character, Springer, from the committee on banking and currency, reported the bill to suspend the operations of the 10 per cent tax law upon clearing house certificates issued during the financial distress of last summer, with an amendment, which he said might be printed and recommended to the committee.

The amendment provides for the repeal of the 10 per cent. tax law. Objection was made by Lockwood (Dem., N.
Y.) to printing the amendment as part of the bill, and it was recommended as requested. Springer gave notice that next Wednesday he would report the bill again for consideration, and Mr Cox (Dem., Tenn.) gave notice that the amendment would then be submitted.

The House then went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, agreement having first been reached to limit the general debate to seven hours.

Without coming to any conclusion in the matter, the committee, on motion of Cummings, rose, and at 4:30 the House adjourned until to-morrow at noon.

AT FREDERICKSBURG.

Present From Grand Army Men—The Presidential Party.

RICHMOND, May 9.—A Fredericksburg special to the Dispatch says: To-night on Scott's Island a delegation of Grand Army men, on behalf of the ladies of Washington, presented to R. S. Chew Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, stands of Virginia and the national colors. Senator Little, for the camp, made a graceful speech of acceptance.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The President, on his trip to Fredericksburg to attend the Mary Washington monument ceremonies, will be accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. Gresham, Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle, Secretary and Mrs.
Lamont, Postmaster-General Bissell, Secretary and Miss Morton, and Private Secretary and Mrs. Thurber.

N. & W. SELLS 20,000 ADDITIONAL SHARES.

This Issue for the Purpose of Reimbursing It for the Acquisition of an Ohio Road.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company announced that the board of directors has created and sold 20,000 shares additional of the preferred stock of the company, being the remainder of the shares authorized by resolution of the shareholders at the meeting held May 4, 1893.

This additional issue is for the purpose of reimbursing the company for advances made by it out of its earnings in the acquisition of the capital stock of the Columbus Connecting and Terminal Railroad Company and for other expenditures properly chargeable to capital account.

Dispatch From Minister Willis.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The President transmitted to Congress to-day a dispatch from Minister Willis, dated Honolulu, April 14, in which he says that in compliance with a telegram from the department requesting him to keep them fully informed of the course of events, he enclosed a set of resolutions adopted by a mass meeting of the royalists on the 9th of April.

OH! HOW SWEET IS VICTORY!

The Home Team Tasted of it Again Yesterday.

The Petersburg Boys Went to Pieces and Ten Errors Accumulated Against Them—but the Roanokes Did Some Great Stick Work and Made the "Rooters" Wild With a Home Run and a Three-Base Hit—A Home Run From an Error—To-day's Game Called at 5 O'clock.

Baseball, like the weather and a woman's love, is subject to changes, and it was the different phase which it assumed yesterday that resulted in another glorious victory over the champions from Petersburg. The fates were with the Roanokes from the start, and, with the exception of another bad muff by Pitzer, the game was perfectly played by the home team.

It started off in a manner to suit the 350 people, who were present, and the "rooters" never did stop cheering for the home team while the visitors cried "give us a show," and kept quiet. The game while the Roanokes were in the field went on like clockwork. It was, "one, two, three and the side is out" for seven of the nine innings, the first three men being retired each time, and the Roanokes were allowed to come in and have some fun with the stick. The first inning of the visitors was a sample of the seven others. Sanford flew out to Crockett, Kelley knocked a grounder to the same invincible player and Brodie struck out.

In the third inning Hammond, after two strikes were called upon him, made a two-bagger and scored on Sanford's single. It was in this inning that Pitzer muffed the high fly knocked by Kelley, but he partially redeemed himself by catching Brodie's long foul hit which came down near the right field fence.

Petersburg got their other two scores in the sixth inning. Kelley struck out and then Brodie found the ball satisfactorily and lined it out for a three base hit. Farrell hit to the infield and Brodie scored before the ball could be returned to the home plate.
Farrell was sent around by the hits of Sanford and Boucher.

The home team commenced their battering early in the game, in fact simultaneously with the visitors' errors.
O'Hagan's first hit being muffed by Farrell. In the second inning Crockett started in with a hit, and Pitzer followed with a beauty just inside of the third base line. Both of these men scored. McHooover started off in the third with a pretty two-bagger into center field. But in the fourth inning the rovers' hearts were made to rejoice by the hit for a home run made by O'Hagan. McGinnis had been given his base on balls, and his and O'Hagan's runs were added in this inning.

By Crockett's timely hit in the sixth inning, when the bases were full, three men were sent home, but Crockett himself was put out in attempting to reach home plate. O'Hagan made the last run in the eighth inning. He had hit a hot one to Brodie, who made a very wild throw to first and the ball got lost under the grand stand. Before it was found O'Hagan had run the bases and come out to help search for the lost ball.

To-day's game, when the Roanokes will meet the Norfolk team, will be called at 5 o'clock and hereafter that time will be set for the beginning of each game.

Boyd and Daniel will be in the points for the home team. The score:

Good Batting and Rotten Fielding.

LYNCHBURG, May 9.—Good batting by Norfolk and rotten fielding by Lynchburg told the story to-day. The home team was not shut out as it was on Tuesday, but was beaten badly enough to bring a great feeling of weariness over its shouters and backers. The score:

R. H. E.
Lynchburg..... 0 0 1 3 2 0 3 10 18 7 Norfolk..... 4 0 0 1 2 5 0 6 18 22 1 Batteries—Lipp and Webster; Klesinger, Col-liflower and Hodge.

Staunton Defeated by Richmond.

STAUNTON, May 9.—The Stauntons met their first downfall on the home grounds here to-day with the Richmonds, who defeated them by a score of 9 to 6. The Bloody Shirts pounded Emig unmercifully, making a total of twelve hits, including a home run by Napier, off his delivery. The home team put up a better game in the field than the visitors, but were not as successful in bunting their hits. Settle, one of the home team pitchers, has been released and is now with the Richmonds. Staunton has signed another pitcher. The score:

Yesterday's National League Games.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Baltimore won their fourth straight game from Washington to-day, that club giving every evidence that the company was too fast for them. Stockdale was batted hard, and his support was uncertain and, at critical stages, bad. The score:

Baseball Notes.

The boys of the Norfolk and Western offices have organized a baseball club to be known as the Norfolk and Western Juniors. The club composes of boys not over 15 years, and will challenge clubs of boys of not over that age. They will play their first game Saturday, May 12th, with the Vinton team.

The "Union Stars" and the "West End Sluggers" played a game of ball yesterday at the West End, which resulted in a victory for the Stars by a score of 21 to 9.

COXEY IN THE HOUSE.

He Appears With His Petition Before a Committee—His Camp a Nuisance.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—It is likely that a warrant will be sworn out charging Coxey with maintaining a nuisance.
Coxey is getting ready to meet such a charge. He had a number of men at work improving the ground this morning, but his sick list is steadily increasing. Thirteen men are already in local hospitals, and many in the camp are suffering from various complaints.

Late this afternoon Coxey was served with a notice to comply with the health regulations in regard to his camp within forty-eight hours, otherwise he will be prosecuted under the statute which imposes a fine of from $5 to $25 for each offense.

Coxey appeared on the floor of the House to-day before the hour of business, under the escort of Representative Pence, of Colorado. Some of the Representatives who were earliest in their seats crowded around him, but when their curiosity was satisfied they, one by one, dropped away and left him alone with Pence.

At 11 o'clock Coxey appeared before the House committee on labor. He laid before the committee a petition bearing the signatures of his followers, the character of their occupations and their place of residence. It was written on paper bearing the letter head of the army of the commonwealth.

At the top of the page were printed in bold, black letters, the mottoes, "Good roads," "Good money," "Good work." Beneath this appeared a single line, "Commonwealth of Christ."

After hearing Coxey to-day, the House committee on labor, by a vote of seven to two, decided to report a resolution for a joint investigation by a special committee of the Senate and House of the Coxey movement and the depressed condition of labor in general.

ST. MARK'S TO BE OPENED TO-DAY.

Dedictory Service and Sunday-school Convention of the Lutheran Synod.

The formal opening of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, in connection with which will be the first annual Sunday-school convention of the Lutheran synod of Southwest Virginia, will begin this evening and continue throughout the week.

The Whit Sunday sermon next Sunday, appropriate to the opening of the new auditorium, will be preached by Rev. Dr. Chas. S. Albert, president of the general synod of the Lutheran Church of the United States. The holy communion will be administered at the evening service.

Interesting programmes have been arranged for to-day, to-morrow, Saturday and Sunday.

The programme for this evening is as follows:

8:00 p. m.—Address of welcome, by Hon. H. S.
Trotter.

8:15 p. m.—Opening address, by Rev. F. V. N.
Painter.

Subject—"The Sunday school: its Jewish origin and its Christian adoption."

8:45 p. m.—Address, by..... Rev. T. S. Brown Subject—"Progress of the Sunday-school Movement."

Big Fire in a Maine Town.

PORTLAND, Me., May 5.—The little village of Newbury was visited to-day by a most disastrous fire. Every dwelling, store and other buildings on Main street were crumbled to ashes and the total loss will amount to $500,000.

Seventy two dwelling houses, including homes of all the prominent merchants and professional men were burned and hundreds of people were forced to flee from their houses, leaving everything to the mercy of the fire.

New Ideas in Millinery.

At the Palais Royal Millinery Bazaar, 101 Salem avenue, can be found the largest and finest stock of millinery ever exhibited in this city. Every article is carefully selected from the newest ideas and latest styles and tastefully exhibited. The prices are the lowest that can be obtained for first-class material, and we promise careful attention to all customers. THE PALAIS ROYAL, M. Indorsky, Manager.

Miners Who Refuse to Strike.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 9.—Most of the miners along the Norfolk and Western railroad for 100 miles up the line have been given an advance in prices for mining and refused to strike.

COUNCIL'S ADJOURNED SESSION.

Several Bills Brought Up and Passed.

Several Amendments to the Code Provided For—Several Electric Lights Ordered Placed—Regulation as to Merchants Exhibiting Goods in Front of Their Places of Business—T. S. Ken-nerly's Bill Not Allowed

At an adjourned meeting of City Council last night the following members were present: Messrs. Clingen-peel, Crabb, Dickerson, Duggan, Fackenthal, Graves, Groves, Hough, Mc-Clelland, Moomaw, Ramsey, Stevenson, Strickland, Terry and the president, Mr. Buckner.

Bill No. 59 to provide for the interest on the $50,000 bonds of the Roanoke hospital was the first of the calendar and on motion of Mr. Groves was dropped from the calendar.

The second bill was No. 80, providing for laying a sidewalk on Mountain avenue s. w. at the expense of the abutting property owners. Mr. Moomaw moved to adopt the bill as read. On the vote being taken the bill was lost.
The vote was reconsidered and the bill referred back to the committee on ordinances.

The next bill was No. 84, to amend section 17, chapter 18, of the city laws to make it read that no merchant shall exhibit merchandise over eighteen inches past the building line, or crates, boxes, etc., over two feet beyond the building line. The ordinance was adopted by a vote of 9 to 3.

The next bill was No. 85, which provides for the amendment of chapters 4 and 5 of the city laws relating to the duties of the city engineer. After a long and tedious discussion the bill was adopted.

Bill No. 86 was then read by the clerk. This provides for the amendment of sections 3, 4, 6, 7 and of chapter 17 of the code of laws for 1893, and repealing section 5 of the same section relating to obtaining permits for the erection of telephones and telegraph poles, removal of pavements, etc., which was adopted as read.

The clerk then read bill No. 87, which provides for the amendment of sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 11, 12 and 14 of chapter 18 of the city code relating to sidewalks, which, after several amendments, was adopted.
